

roundrobin@autistici.org

- e-mail
- condividi
- condividi
- condividi
- condividi

- condividi

The clandestinity of anarchist comrade Gabriel Pombo da Silva has ended

After about a year and a half in hiding, this morning, January 25, 2020, Gabriel Pombo Da Silva was arrested in Portuguese territory.

With an international arrest warrant for a residual theoretical sentence of over ten years (a personal vendetta converted into a “legal detail”), Gabriel continued to contribute to the anarchist struggle with his writings.

He is currently locked up in a cell of the judicial police in Porto waiting to appear on Monday in the courtroom where the possible extradition to Spain will be discussed.

Gabriel is well and quite calm in spite of everything.

Updates will follow.

Freedom for Gabriel Pombo da Silva!

Long live anarchy!